SER.	10

Letter no 702 dated the 20th of April 1900 from the Presd. of the D. F. Board Hawaiian and stating that in the list of incomplete work under D. F. sent for the current year a provision of Rs 365 was made for sinking a well at Quickerah in the Atsikere Taluk and that the said work has not been taken in hand although nearly two years have elapsed since it was sanctioned and suggesting that as no scarcity for water is felt by At-Quickerah the funds provided for the well at that village may be utilized for sinking a well at Byrapur when wa

want of water is much felt

~~The Presd reports~~

~~that the people of Byrapur have at their own cost, sunk a well up to the 4th fathom and that they are unable to proceed further without the assistance of the Govt. He further lays stress on the scarcity for water at the place. Under these circumstances Govt are~~ pleased to approve of the President's ^{proposal} ~~suggestion~~ to ~~under-~~ appropriate the sum of Rs 365 referred to for ~~the~~ the construction of a well at Byrapur. ~~at an~~ ~~outlay of Rs 365/- in lieu of~~ ~~the one at Jinkeshalli sanctioned by the Govt~~ ~~some time back.~~
